

To make this chart, I first took the data and turned it into a readable table with "read.table". Then, I used `plot(density(readable.table$REF_ID))`. I found that the density of the values were around a similar range between 1 and 1.5×10^{-7} depending on the reference ID of each sample.